The St. Vrain Young Farmers chapter and D & E Auctioneers are working together to conduct this community consignment auction. D & E Auctioneers will handle the bookkeeping and the St. Vrain Young Farmer's chapter will handle the set up, check in, and check out. The Young Farmers use their portion of the proceeds to fund the Fred Sekich Scholarship program and other community projects. Items will be charged commission and consignors will receive an accounting with their check. Consignor's checks will be available the second Monday following the auction and may be picked up at Agri-Care at Longs Peak Equipment from 10 AM to 1 PM. Any checks not picked up will be mailed out Monday night. Many thanks to all who have participated in the past. A disposal fee may be charged for tires and large amounts of misc. if not removed by Tuesday following the auction. No credit cards or buyer's fee.

COMMISSION PER ITEM
